

Faculty of HOSPITALITY AND TOURISM

The world of international hospitality and tourism has progressed tremendously in the past few decades and consumers today are highly selective and demand only the best in maintenance. The labor market is viable, and many positions necessitate tertiary training. Hence, only those skilled with a keen sense of understanding towards meeting this requirement will be able to flourish in this challenging industry. Having university qualifications gives the students an edge because they have the skills and advantage to obtain employment. The program offers high quality scientific and professional learning. The Faculty of Hospitality and Tourism at Lincoln University College, Malaysia prepares them to excel in the tourism and global business field.

Doctorate

Doctor of Philosophy in Tourism and Hospitality Management

Master

Master of Business Administration in Hospitality Management

Master in Tourism Management

Bachelor

Bachelor of Science (Hons) in Hospitality Management

Bachelor in Tourism Management

Diploma

Diploma in Culinary Arts

Diploma in Hotel Management

“Lincoln University College has not just provided a great and enjoyable environment for quality education but it also provided so many pathways for me to achieve new heights. Being far away from my home country, Lincoln University College became my home in Malaysia. It is a place of great atmosphere and I truly feel honored being part of this global community”

Lambat Tasneem Ismail
United Kingdom